Things that happened to the
Bellaire coin club this month.
By Michael Wolford.

June 7, 2010

There were 23 members and guest at the meeting. The business meeting went quickly. This provided more time for Sebastian Frommhold's program about Modern Circulating Euro Coins. Garth Clark discussed his parents were having some medical problems. Garth thanked Tom Cooper for running the May 17 meeting. Garth again noted that the official Bellaire gavel had been found. Garth announced the next Bellaire coin show, July 31 and August 1. Michael Wolford noted the he received a long email from Ed Stephens that it is not an Ed Stephen's show. It is a Bellaire club sponsored show. Michael noted that the Greater Houston Coin Club is moving to a new location, Saint Luke's United Methodist, 3471 Westheimer Road. Tom Bermel stated he has the thank you cards for the May show volunteers. Tom just forgot to pick them up. Sebastian Frommhold presented a program, Modern Circulating Euro Coins. While getting a lights turned back on. Richardo DeLeon showed a Poncho villa wallet.

June 21, 2010

There were 27 members and guest at the meeting. The business meeting went quickly. This provided more time for Michael Doyle's program about Confederate paper money. Garth Clark noted that the club received three more late membership dues. Garth stated that his father has a medical condition that limited speech. Father's day Garth's father was speaking normally. Garth announced an article in Coin World about Jim Beville receiving an award for his Paper Republic book. Garth made known that the Bellaire post office box had been paid for the next time period. Garth reminded everyone about the next coin show, July 31 and August 1, Bellaire Civic Center, 7008 South Rice. Some listings state the show as an "Ed Stephen" shows, but the show is a "Bellaire" club show. Tom Bermel presented thank you cards to volunteers of the May 22 show. Tom had them for the June 7 meeting, just forgot to bring them. The club had a discussion about the recent Bellaire shows. Getting a copy of the mailing list from Ed Stephens. About making the shows more distinctive. Michael Doyle motioned to end this discussion, because of the library time limits. Michael Doyle presented a program, Confederate Paper Money.
