

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

- December 2002. Jim Bevill, Tim Conway and club members discussed that the updated shirt deal was over. Currently it is a white shirt with a gray logo. Dennis Beasley noted Ed Dobson's wife had died. Carl Schwenker presented an update of the Greater Houston Coin Show's Money Show of the Southwest. Carl stated that the show must have more volunteers, because of the size of the Greenspoint Mall Expo Center. Jim Bevill noted that Ninfa's catering will be provided at the Holiday party. Tim Conway and the club voted to cancel the December 16 meeting. Tim Conway also noted that recently his computer has a computer virus. Tim noted the website norton.com to fix this virus and to check for any other viruses you may get.
- November 2002. Tim Conway stated that Carl Schwenker wanted the club to endorse Pat Finner as a nomination for American Numismatic Association's president during the next elections. The club voted, yes to endorse her. Tom Bermel quoted the final balance of the August Show. Ralph Ross stated that the Clements Coin Club needs a cash donation for a trip to the Florida United Numismatists show in January. The club voted, yes to donate to Clements. Bob Bing noted that funds are needed to send a member to the American Numismatic Association's Summer Seminar in Colorado Springs. The club voted, yes to donate an undetermined amount. Jim Bevill, Tim Conway confirmed that the holiday party would be at Jim & Jodie Bevill's house. Ed Stephens confirmed the dates of the National Coin Week Show. Jim Bevill, Tom Cooper, and Ed Stephens discussed a flyer presented by Tom Cooper, on golf shirts.
- October 2002. John Evans and Ed Stephens had more information about the nickel slabs that Carl Schwenker brought at a past meeting. Ed Stephens stated that if you wanted something slabbed talk with Michael Doyle, at Collectors Coins. Jerry Clemons, Brian Holland and Tom Windsheimer discussed an online auction of unclaimed property at the Sam Houston Racetrack. Ed Stephens confirmed that the club would have two shows in 2003. Ron Miller thanked the club for the card; he received for running the snack bar area during the August show. The other members that volunteered as chairperson already received their thank you cards.
- September 2002. The Greater Houston Coin Club has moved to a new general meeting location. Ed Stephens stated we had a high profit since we schedule two shows each year. Michael Wolford noted that Bob Bing of the Pasadena Coin Club has received the labels for their show. The members volunteered to do a, only to nominate Tim Conway as president of our coin club. Ed Stephens noted he has received a lot of e-mail about updating the information on the website. The Bellaire website web master is David Burke of the Corpus Christi Coin Club. David reminded Tim Conway, Ed Stephens and Michael Wolford on techniques of how to send website information through e-mail.

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

August 2002.

Most members were at home, enjoying the numismatic items. Other members may have watched the first game of the Houston Texans on ABC. Tim Conway and Brian Holland thanked the volunteers at our Bellaire Coin Show. Tom Windsheimer noted that the club needed to get more out of town people and dealers. Tom estimated that one-third of the dealers were from Houston area. Jerry Clemons noted that dealers with multiple tables at the show always help with the show. Ray McCready created the play money and a bidding numbers for the children's auctions. Tim Conway stated that Ginger Bing helped with the Sunday auction. Carl Schwenker displayed two-nickel slabs from the National Guaranty Corporation of America, which almost didn't slab because of the damage on the coins. Carl Schwenker announced that the Money Show of the Southwest would have a real auction and grading companies with tables. Once again there were not enough volunteers at the Bellaire show. Ed Stephens volunteered to be the National Coin Week chairperson in April. Carl Schwenker stated that the Bellaire's August Show was great, it is the better of the shows that the Bellaire Coin Club sponsors.

July 2002.

Tom Bermel gave a final report about the National Coin Show in April. Tim Conway reported about the July 1, 2002, issue of Coin World. Tim Conway surprised Michael Wolford, with a framed copy of the article. Tim Conway and Ed Stephens and the club discussed the Bellaire Coin Show in August. There was a miscommunication between all people involved with the designing and handling of the reminder cards. Gary Austin and Ed Stephens passed around the volunteer list, asking for more help with the take down after the show. Jerry Clemons noticed the Bellaire Coin Club newsletter in Coin World. Tim Conway restated the discussion. Jim Bevill reported on the numismatic gift committee. The young numismatics is one of the many ways to continue to keep our coin club operating in the southwest Houston area.

June 2002.

Jim Bevill and Jodie Wilson made an announcement they have gotten married and moved the family to a new address. Brian Holland asked what the plans are about the children's auction donation. Tim Conway and his wife noted that at the installation, nobody noted that Michael Wolford should have stood up with the new board members when they were installed. Jim Bevill and Tim Conway stated that Michael is expendable to the club. Michael keeps the members up to date with the newsletter, now Michael has added an e-mail copy of the newsletter, still sending a paper copy to each member. Michael, at no time asks for extra compensation, only the amount used to buy the newsletter copies, stamps, and blank mailing labels. Tim Conway and Ed Stephens discussed a question about the amounts to be given for numismatic gifts. The club voted and created a committee for this study. The club and with the current board members are still making adjustments with the reduced meeting time. The business portion of the meeting seems to go quicker, since the library only provides approximately on an a half-hour on two Mondays per month, which is the same amount of Greater Houston Coin Club's once a month meeting of three hours.

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

- May 2002. Jim Bevill, past president, installed the new board members. Tim Conway and Ed Stephens presented a plaque to Jim Bevill for the following list. Jim Bevill chaired the club's website, children's auction and boy scouts clinics, purchasing of an expensive microscope coin viewer, attended the American Numismatic Association's summer seminar, publicity for Bellaire Coin Show and National Coin Week. Ron Miller suggested the club to update the end of year fiscal report, since in May our club changed the board members. Tim Conway read a letter from the American Numismatic Association, about a donation for non-bourse activities during the New York City, World's Fair Of Money. The club voted no. Ron Miller and Ed Stephens discuss that this was the second year with April and August shows. The same chairpersons are running each major job, with no help. The volunteers sign up to help, but normally never actually volunteer at the location.
- April 2002. Jim Bevill showed a magazine about the boy scouts with an advertisement about the National Coin Week show. Jim Bevill continued to hand out cards, stamps and labels, for the reminder cards for the National Coin Week show. Jim Bevill and Tim Conway are both involved with the boy scouts. Jim Bevill and Joann Hungerford asked for a new publicity chairperson for the Show in August. Jim Bevill asked the club where they would like to have the Installation Dinner/Spring Party. Ron Miller will need help to bring soft drinks to the show. Michael Wolford reminded the club attendees about membership dues. Ron Miller will need a volunteer, with a pick up truck, to help with the trash. Tim Conway ran the election for the club. Michael Wolford asked about the installation dinner. Tim Conway suggested a plaque to thank Jim Bevill for being president for five years and making our numismatic club more enjoyable.
- March 2002. Bob Crooks discussed James Turpin is looking for proof sets. Jim Bevill and club member discussed the National Coin Week Coin Show. Most have regular volunteers, but each area wants new members to volunteer. Jim Bevill announced it is time for club elections will be April 15. Jim Bevill has formally stated that he does not want to continue to be president. Ralph Ross presented Jim Bevill with a Thank You 2002. Silver Eagle for his work with the boy scouts during the Greater Houston Coin Club's Money Show of the Southwest.
- February 2002. Jim Bevill announced the Bellaire library thanked the club for the donation. Carl Schwenker gave a report about the Greater Houston Coin Club's Money Show of the Southwest, including the four 1914 Denver wheat cent coin drops. Ralph Ross stated at the show, a person brought the correct dated and mint cent. Carl Schwenker confirmed it was not one of the dropped coins. Ed Stephens provided an update about the National Coin Week show. Tom Bermel and Ed Stephens distributed packages of show flyers that Joann Hungerford brought. Tom Bermel, Ron Sjoberg and Ed Stephens had a presented information about purchasing during shows.
- January 2002. Jim Bevill and Michael Wolford noted that they got glimpses of Olympic torch at different locations. Jim Bevill noted the Bellaire Civic Center still had the best location and rental rates for shows. Tom Bermel and Ron Sjoberg's table were one of the Bellaire Coin Club dealers, closest to the two million dollar nickel at the Greater Houston Coin Club's Money Show of the Southwest.

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

- December 2001. Jim Bevill reminded everybody about the Christmas party at his house. Jim Bevill stated that Jerry Clemons noted that it has been a while since the library has received a numismatic donation. John Evans noted that US coins was having a special pricing for silver eagles. The Christmas party was wonderful. Plenty of food and drinks provided by Jim Bevill, Jodie Wilson and Ninfa's catering. There were door prizes, won by most of the members attending. This party was one way to meet other club members and their friends. Tim Conway reminded about a walk through the Greater Houston Coin Club space at the Greenspoint Expo Center. Thad Samorajski had a question about grading services. Club members discussed which grading services were best of a particular item.
- November 2001. Jim Bevill and Bob Bing noted that the library will be completely closed at 8:00 PM. Jim reminded about Pasadena Coin Show. Brian Holland asked about parking. Jim Bevill and club members discussed the National Coin Week Show. Jim Bevill discussed some of the future programs. Jim Bevill reminded the club about the Christmas Party. The deadline for RSVP is December 3, at the meeting. Jim noted that Thanksgiving is the Pasadena Coin Show. Jim Bevill confirmed that April 27-28 are the dates for the National Coin Week Show. Michael Wolford noted that this past week Ann Templeton, wife of the past club president, Charles Templeton had died. During the Greater Houston Coin Club meeting, November 15, announced that Ann Templeton had died on November 11. Contributions to be made to St. Paul Presbyterian Church 7200 Bellaire Blvd., Houston TX 77074.
- October 2001. Tom Bermel discussed the Bellaire Coin Show financial summary. Ron Sjoberg gave a report on the Beaumont Coin Show. Bob Bing reminded the club, about the Pasadena Coin Show in November. Jim Bevill and Ron Miller started a discussion about the Christmas party. Ralph Ross announced the new meeting location for the GHCC is the Wellesley Hotel on I-10 west near the 610 loop. He also advised the GHCC Coin Show would be held at the Greenspoint Expo Center. Tom Windsheimer noted the Pasadena Coin Club's annual show would be held on Thanksgiving Weekend. Club voted to have the annual Bellaire Coin Club Christmas Party at Jim Bevill's house on Friday, December 7. National Coin Week Show 2002 is April 20-27.
- September 2001. Jim Bevill helped to club attend a wonderful Viking tour presented by the curators Dirk Van Tuerenhout and David Temple. The tour included the only Viking coin to be found in the United States. Dirk and David also came to the Mexican fiesta, provided by Ninfa's, at Jim Bevill's house. Jim Bevill discussed the museum tour and party that happened on September 9. Jim showed two jokes he received. One was about the bald eagle, and the other was about a rebuilt World Trade Center. Michael Wolford became a new uncle. He is named Clay Christopher Beaton, born on August 20. I already give him his first 2001 Proof Set, to start his numismatic collection.

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

August 2001.

Ron Miller volunteered to run the meeting. He pasted out the last of the snack bar chips and other snacks. He noted the snack bar made a profit. Michael Wolford stated the show had 214 attending on Saturday, and 50 attending on Sunday. Tom Cooper, Bob Crooks, Ron Miller, Jack Pavlovic and Jeff Todd had observations and other suggestions about the Bellaire Coin Show. Thaddeus Samorajski discussed the children's auction. Ron Miller had counted the snack bar cash, during the show. Ron found a half-dime in the change, he gave the half-dime to Michael Wolford, to start a new box of children's auction donations. Tom Cooper noted that Ed Smith was ready for the show tear down. A guest discussed an area gun show, which certain dealers had coin displays. The same guest also noted his observations about the children's auction. Club members had more discussions about the past Bellaire Coin Show. Carl Schwenker 3, publicity for the Greater Houston's The Money Show of the Southwest, noted that the show would be at the Greenspoint Expo Center in January. Jim Bevill displayed a press release about the Bellaire Coin Show. Last month a librarian found an old coin; she gave it to Michael Wolford, to give to Jim Bevill. Jim asked the members if they lost the coin. Jim Bevill read a letter, from the Museum of Natural Science. A curator offered to provide the club with a walking tour of the Viking Exhibit. Michael Wolford suggested that the tour be on the Sunday, September 9, since the city of El Campo is planning a coin show on Saturday, September 8. Jim Bevill reminded that the club is planning to create a quality exhibit to be displayed at a museum or any convenient location.

July 2001.

Jim Bevill went to Colorado Springs for the American Numismatic Association's Summer Seminar. Tim Conway noted new details about the children's auction. Ed Stephen stated that Val Kotrous had donated many items for the children's auction. Tim Bermel and Ron Sjoberg discussed the distributing of the show flyers. Ed Stephens reminded the club about date and times of the show. Ron Miller, the snack bar chairman, had received suggestions, to add microwave popcorn to the list of items available at the snack bar. Ed Stephens and Ron Miller presented a volunteer list, for helping at the show set up and the snack bar. Jim Bevill began the Lickem and Stickem party, to put labels on the show reminder cards. Jim displayed some of the items brought for the children's auction. Jim confirmed the chairpersons for each specific duty needed for the coin show. Ron Miller will run the snack bar area. Tim Conway and Brian Holland, will be auctioneers for the children's auction. This was not stated at the meeting, but Michael Wolford will be at the visitor table. The club will still need more help in these areas. Jim Bevill and Seth Kravitz discussed their activities during the American Numismatic Association's Summer Seminar, in Colorado Springs. Jim also asked for more donations to the children's auctions.

June 2001.

Jim Bevill reminded the club about the Texas Coin Show in Grapevine. Jim Bevill announced that he has found another bank to order the new statehood quarters. Seth Kravitz and club members discussed about creating a quality exhibit to be displayed at a museum or any convenient location. A committee will be formed with members with all participating coin clubs. Tom Bermel presented a report on the profits the National Coin Week Show made, in April. Jim Bevill played a numismatic type game. Jim asked if someone knew where a coin shop was located. If somebody knew a store, Jim asked that person to bring a package of Bellaire Coin Show flyers to that store and ask for children's auction donations. Jim stated that members should start bringing their donations, for labeling. Jim stated that the club received a ballot for the American Numismatic Association's elections. Raising of hands filled out the ballot.

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

May 2001.

Jim Bevill reviewed the new Bellaire Coin Club board members. Ron Miller thanked all members help with the Snack Bar area. Jim Bevill thanked again, Joanne Hungerford for the publicity and Tim Conway for the Boy Scout programs. He reminded about the Texas Numismatic Association Coin Show in Fort Worth. Jim Bevill, Ron Miller and Tom Windsheimer discussed the exchanging of the North Carolina quarters. Jim Bevill stated the bank, and the actual person he orders the statehood quarters from, have changed locations. Jim Bevill welcomed everybody to Frankie Mandola's Steaks and Burgers. Jim Klodosky installed all of the new board members, with their duties during the year. Jim Bevill ended the installation with a note about having Michael Wolford as an important part of the club. Michael provides communication to all current club members, with the monthly newsletter.

April 2001.

Alan Van Nort and Club members started the Lickem Stickem party, where all members put the labels and stamps on to the reminder cards, for the National Coin Week Show. Ralph Ross and Ed Stephens reminded the club about the Texas Numismatic Association Convention in Fort Worth. Ed Stephens stated other coin shows in the area. Alan Van Nort stated that the club still needs a nomination for vice president. Ed Stephens stated that Tim Conway has agreed to be nominated as vice president. Jim Bevill reminded the members about the Installation Dinner at Frankie Mandola's Steak and Burgers. Jim Bevill stated that Ed Stephens was on the radio announcing the National Coin Week Show: coin show. Jim Bevill and Ed Stephens reminded about the set up of the tables for the coin show. Jim Bevill thanked Bob Lee for getting the boy scouts to attend. Joann Hungerford for publicity. Rademakers for updating the advertising signs for the street. Jim thanked Michael Wolford about the labels. Ron Miller and Ed Stephens noted what the snack bar would have. Jim Bevill ran the elections for the year. The following is the new board members. President: Jim Bevill, Secretary: Ed Stephens, Vice President: Tim Conway, Treasurer: Tom Bermel, Newsletter: Michael Wolford.

March 2001.

Jim Bevill reminded the club about membership dues. John Evans noted that Louis Whitaker would be going to another coin show to get ANACS to come to the National Coin Week Show. John Evans, Jim Klodosky and Ed Stephens stated all tables for National Coin Week Show are sold out. Jim Bevill, Joann Hungerford and club members volunteered to send National Coin Show flyers to area coin shops. Jim Bevill and club members discussed the club election on April 16. Jim Bevill and club members stated when to have the installation dinner. Jim Bevill thank Michael Wolford for the labels and Joanne Hungerford for the publicity for the show. Jim Bevill and Tom Cooper discussed the updating our street advertising signs. Jim Bevill asked for additional assistance with the National Coin Week Show. John Evans discussed the location of the installation dinner. Jim Bevill reminded about the club elections.

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

- February 2001. Jim Bevill also stated thanks to Joanne Hungerford and Bob Lee for the publicity for the National Coin Week Show. Jim will later thank Michael Wolford for providing the labels for the reminder cards. Jim noted the basic schedule for the officer elections. Jerry Clemons noted that tonight at 10, on channel 2 (NBC), there will a special report about errors on current coins and currency. Michael Wolford will record this special report. Ed Stephens reminded about the Bellaire Coin. Show Jerry Clemons reminded about the National Coin Week Show. The children's auction is not scheduled for the National Coin Week Show, Jim Bevill, Ed Stephens and Jeff Todd discussed the table fee and limits for the National Coin Week Show. Jim Bevill reminded the club about the American Numismatic Association Summer Seminar. Jim Bevill noted that his family moved to a new location. Jim found his Bellaire Coin Club T-shirt, during the move. Jerry Clemons at the February 5 meeting stated a special report, about current errors and about special numbering errors on currency bills. Michael Wolford stated he recorded that special report. Jim Bevill read an information package about the American for Common Cents.
- January 2001. Louis Whitaker presented a report that was about the Florida United Numismatists Show. Jim Bevill reminded the club about the Greater Houston Coin Club's Money Show. Jim Bevill also reminded that it membership dues time again. Jim Bevill also reminded the club about the Bellaire Coin Club's National Week Show. Jim asked for additional assistance with the publicity for the Bellaire Coin Club's Regular Coin Show in August.
- December 2000. Christmas Dinner and Bingo. Ed Stephens gave a report about the 2000 Pasadena coin show. Ed explained current changes of the Bellaire coin shows in April and August, starting with a table limit. Ron miller and Ed Stephens discussed the Bellaire coin club will try to ask "ANACS" to attend our April show. Tom Windsheimer asked why the Texas Numismatic Association moved the show away from Houston. Ed Stephens stated the United States Mint has started to receive new orders of the Sacagawea dollar, five new quarters, regular silver proof sets, mint sets, proof eagles, gold eagles. Ed Stephens then showed a Christie's auction catalog featuring items from the ship Central America.
- November 2000. The editor was not able to attend this meeting. He was on plane home from a family vacation in Orlando, Florida. The editor wasn't worried about the minutes since he thought he would get them at the next meeting. The editor was nowhere near where they create "Florida election ballots." Jim Bevill reminded the members about the Pasadena Coin Show. Jim Bevill finalized the location of the Christmas Dinner. Then Jim Bevill distributed flyers advertising the Bellaire Coin Club's National Coin Week show. John Evans asked the club for cash for the bingo prizes for the Christmas Dinner. Jim Bevill restated that the club needed volunteers to do a program for the next set of meetings.

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

October 2000.

Jim Bevill stated that Ed Smith had some extra uncirculated statehood quarter rolls to exchange. Bob Bing and Ron Sjoberg reported on the Beaumont Coin Show. Ron Sjoberg then reported on the Arlington Coin Show. Jim Bevill stated they members should go to another city Coin Shows. The editor always show a list of Texas shows below the mailing label with “nearest intersection,” viewable on any map. Jim Bevill is asking members to think of a name of the National Coin Week show, in the form of a “Name the Show Spring Challenge.” Annette Bing and Ron Miller started to discuss the location of the Christmas dinner. Jim Bevill reviewed a passed motion to rename the show for “National Coin Week.” The current name is “Bellaire Coin Club’s National Coin Week show.” Bob Bing and Jim Bevill reminded the club about the Pasadena Coin Show. Ginger Bing and club members discussed the location of the Christmas dinner. Jim Bevill read a letter from Ralph Ross about the Clements Coin Club asking for financial aid to the “Florida United Numismatists” show. Jerry Clemons commented that on the date of the letter from Ralph, it was dated “Friday the 13th.” Ralph Ross and Ron Sjoberg told stories about the past “Florida United Numismatists” shows.

September 2000.

Jim Bevill reminded all members about the southeast Texas Coin & Collectibles Fall Show. Ron Miller thanked Jim Bevill for bringing “statehood quarters” to meetings. Jim Bevill stated that he goes to “First Prosperity Bank-Meyerland Plaza.” Ed Stephens noted that the United States mint has officially started to take orders for numismatic items featuring the 2000 statehood quarters. Tom Cooper showed samples of the Virginia statehood quarters. Tom Cooper wondered the best to keep the statehood quarters, protected.

August 2000.

Jim Bevill discussed his trip to the American Numismatic Association’s summer seminar in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Jim Bevill then thanked all of the members attending the Bellaire Coin Show. Bob Bing noted all of the tables for the Pasadena Coin Show were sold out. Jim Bevill and club members discussed the next “National Coin Week Expo” at the Bellaire Civic Center. Ed Stephens noted that Bill Johns had passed away July 31, 2000. Jim Bevill exchanged bankrolls of South Carolina Denver mint statehood quarters. Jim Klodosky announced the Bellaire Little League was in Williamsport Pennsylvania for the Little League World Series. Jerry Clemons noted that when Bellaire rented cases for the show, they were overcharged by mistake. John Evans thanked Louis Whitaker for a wonderful Bellaire Coin Show. The club members discussed the Ed Arrich scandal; there was a investigation about the “National Coin Week Expo.” The situation was about the scholarships to the 2000 American Numismatic Association Summer Seminar. The Bellaire Coin Club voted to drop this investigation.

July 2000.

Alan Van Nort discussed items about Ed Arrich and the past National Coin Week Expo. Jeff Todd discussed plans about the next Bellaire Coin Show. Alan Van Nort stated that the next meeting would be the night to put stamps and labels on the reminder cards for the Bellaire Coin Show. Alan Van Nort then started to pass out the reminder cards, with labels printed by Michael Wolford, and stamps. Members discussed the American Numismatic Association’s Summer Seminar. Ed Stephens noted that the United States Mint has officially started to take orders for numismatic items featuring the 2000 statehood quarters. Louis Whitaker reviewed all of the important items about the Bellaire Coin Show. Ed Stephens created a Bellaire Coin Show volunteer list, to help with the registration table and the snack bar areas. The labeling and stamping of the show reminder cards took longer then needed.

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

- June 2000. Members were reminded of the upcoming Bellaire Coin Show. Jim Bevill announced that the Bellaire Coin Club newsletter, Michael Wolford-editor, has received an honorable mention recognition from the American Numismatic Association. Members were encouraged to bring numismatic items for “Show And Tell.” New $5 and $10 notes were presented. Other items presented were a first issue Delaware quarter with certificate signed by Philip Diehl and $10 and $20 counterfeit notes. Dale Friend brought a bronze figure of Sacagawea.
- May 2000. Jim Bevill welcomed all visitors from the “National Coin Week Expo.” Jim Bevill reminded the members about the Texas Numismatic Association Coin Show. Jim Bevill stated that the American Numismatic Association would soon be having another Summer Seminar. Ed Arrich thanked all the volunteers during the “National Coin Week Expo.” Ed Arrich noted that he would attempt to have next years show in a larger location. David Burke notified the club members that we have received honorable mention recognition for the Bellaire Coin Club newsletter from the American Numismatic Association. Jim Bevill advised that Michael Wolford would not be attending the club meetings for at least two months. Wayne DuPont graciously volunteered to maintain the newsletter during mike’s absence. Clayton Jennings volunteered to attend the American Numismatic Association Summer Seminar. Jim Bevill advised club members that the boards of directors had discussed and unanimously agreed that a letter of complaint be sent to the American Numismatic Association regarding the problems associated with the show chairman of the recent Coin Show held at the Bellaire Civic Center.
- April 2000. Steve Rademacher, young numismatic, announced that he has a new baby sister. Ed Arrich reminded about set up for the National Coin Week Expo. Ed Arrich made a note that a local dealer, Ron Sjoberg, that if one more dealer cancels their table, Ron would get that table. Jim Bevill joked stated that with a cancellation it, “He would be Enron,” (in Ron). Enron is the name of Houston Astros new baseball stadium. Ed Arrich, Jim Bevill, and John Evans announced the election of board officers. Ed Arrich, Jim Bevill, Ed Stephens and Ron Sjoberg discussed the installation dinner. Jim Bevill noted when National Coin Week started, income tax day. Stocks are starting to improve and National Poetry month. Jim Bevill read a poem that he wrote called “Ship Wreck.” Jim Bevill stated that the National Coin Week Expo was complete by Ed Arrich with no local club help. Ed Arrich again thanked Michael Wolford for creating the labels for the reminder cards. Ed Arrich will use the profits to go to Colorado Springs for the American Numismatic Association’s Summer Seminar. Each club will use their five hundred dollars to send a member to Colorado Springs. Michael Wolford asked what if two coin clubs choose to send the same member to Colorado.
- March 2000. Ron Miller and Louis Whitaker discussed the Bellaire Coin Show. Jim Bevill reminded the clubs about the Greater Orange Coin Club’s Spring Show. Ed Arrich updated information about the National Coin Week Expo. Jim Klodosky noted a commercial about the new dollar. Jim Bevill and the club members discussed the nominations for the elections. Ed Arrich, Jim Bevill, Ron Miller presented ideas for the location of the installation dinner. Ed Smith brought an article about the new gold dollars. Jim Bevill, Alan Van Nort and club members discussed getting the new dollars at local banks.

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

- February 2000. Jim Bevill thanked “First Prosperity Bank-Meyerland Plaza” for ordering the statehood quarters. Ed Arrich noted plans about the “National Coin Week Expo.” Jerry Clemons noted the attendance of the Greater Houston Coin Club Money Show, and how well the show went. Louis Whitaker was nominated to be the chairman for the next Bellaire Coin Show. Tom Cooper brought a limited supply of laminated cards from the Houston Chronicle with the death notice of Charles Templeton. Ed Arrich past around a volunteer list for the “National Coin Week Expo.” Ed Stephens noted that Wal-Mart is distributing the new Sacagawea dollar as change. Jerry Clemons and Ed Arrich noted that Chris John’s daughter, Billie Johns had a stroke at the Greater Houston Coin Club’s February meeting. Ed Stephens noted how busy he is every Monday. Ed Stephens is the president of the Pasadena Coin Club.
- January 2000. Jim Bevill welcomed everybody to Y2K. Jim Bevill announced that Charles Templeton had died on December 28, 1999. Ed Stephens noted that the club donates $25 to the Templeton for the boy scouts. Ed Arrich stated that the “National Coin Week Expo” will have a clinic for the boy scouts and children’s auctions. Jesse Vaughan presented a reproduction of a 1804-dollar for “Show And Tell.” Jim Bevill reminded the club about the Greater Houston Money Show 2000 and the Astrohall. The club nominated Alan Van Nort as the acting vice president.
- December 1999. Jim Bevill presented Ed Stephens and Ralph Ross with the corrected National Coin Week Award Plaques. Ralph Ross thanked Jim for the award, and taking time to get the award corrected. Ralph Ross reminded when the Greater Houston would have their Christmas Dinner. Ralph Ross then reminded when the Greater Houston would have their Coin Show. Ed Arrich noted when the National Coin Week Expo would be. Ed Arrich also noted that the Expo will have a children’s auction and a scout merit badge clinic. Jim Bevill then welcomed Norman Dumais to call the bingo numbers. Jim Bevill then welcomed Bob Lee to check the winning bingo games. Jim Bevill thanked Frankie Mandola for a wonderful night for a Christmas Dinner. Jim Bevill then thank Norman and Bob for their help for running the bingo.
- November 1999. Jim Bevill noted that Charles Templeton is in the hospital. Jim reminded the club about the Christmas dinner. Ed Arrich gave information about the National Coin Week Expo. Ed suggested that the profits be used to send member to American Numismatic Association's Summer Seminar from each club, Bellaire, Greater Houston, Pasadena, Clements Coin Clubs. Jim Klodosky brought a special issue of the rare coin review from Bowers and Merena Galleries. Jim Bevill, Ed Stephens and Jean Pavlovic reminded the club about the Pasadena Coin Show. Jean Pavlovic noted a back way using Airport Boulevard to Hansen as a more convenient way to get to the Radisson Hotel. John Evans noted that Charles Templeton is still in the hospital. Bob Bing noted that the Pasadena show labels are ready to be printed. Bob noted that E J Cordray, a well know proof dealer, had a heart attack. Jeff Todd is selling a type set.

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

- October 1999. Ralph Ross reminded the club about the Money Show 2000 exhibits. Jim Bevill showed the club a copy of the American Numismatic Association's Numismatist. The issue had a photograph showing Louis Whitaker, life member of the Bellaire Coin Club, accepting the National Coin Week award for the Houston area Coin Clubs. Jim Bevill then showed a photograph of Howie Rogers, of the Clements Coin Club, accepting a first-place honor in the young Numismatist exhibits at the American Numismatic Association convention in Chicago. Ed Arrich confirmed that the "Bayou City Coin Show" being renamed, "National Coin Week Expo." The Bellaire, Greater Houston, Pasadena and Clements Coin Clubs will volunteer at this show. Jim Bevill confirmed that the Christmas dinner will be at Frankie Mandola's Steak and Burgers. Brian Holland started a new segment, called "Mystery Coin."
- September 1999. Jim Bevill welcomed all members and guests to Frankie Mandola's Steak and Burgers. Jim noted that the Bellaire Public Library is adjusting the operating hours, all week closing at 8:00 PM each night. Jim announced that the "National Coin Week" award from the American Numismatic Association, labeled "Bellaire Coin Club" now shows all Houston area clubs. Jim Bevill confirmed that during "National Coin Week" the area clubs will have a coin show that week. The current chairman for the show, will be Ed Arrich.
- August 1999. The Bellaire Coin Show, had been a big success. Ed Arrich gave a report about the American Numismatic Association's elections. John Evans suggested that Louis Whitaker become a life member of the club, for his work as show chairman. Jim Bevill thanked all volunteers for working at the show, especially all members handling the children's auction, registration table and snack bar. Jim Bevill and the club members discussed a summary of the Bellaire show profits. Jim announced, please send the Bellaire Coin Club your e-mail address, to Jim Bevill. The club sends special club e-mail notices. Dale Friend gave a report about the American Numismatic Association in Chicago. Jim Bevill displayed an American Numismatic Association-National Coin Week award. Jerry Clemons reminded the club about the Money Show 2000. Jerry then stated that the Bureau Of Engraving Being scheduled to attend Money Show. Jerry Clemons discussed an important note about the area showcases. The Greater Houston Coin Club is cleaning out their warehouse storage area.
- July 1999. The club started to add stamps and address labels to the cards for our Bellaire Coin Show. Jim Bevill asked Ray MerCready to show a sample of the special currency for the children's auction. Jim Bevill thanked Maria Rademacher for repainting Bellaire Coin Show.

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

- June 1999. Jim Bevill welcomed Charles Templeton back to the meetings. Charles Templeton showed the club one of the new “regular proof” sets with all five of the new quarters and the other current coins. Jim Bevill showed a sample of children's auction currency from a past Fort Worth area Coin Show. Jim stated that the club received an election ballot from the Texas Numismatic Association. Ed Arrich reminded the club members about the American Numismatic Association's 31st Annual Summer Conference. Ed also noted that this year, the Colorado Springs area will have a special “The Double Eagle 'No-Pro' Golf Tournament.” Ed also noted that Patricia Jagger received an American Numismatic Association governor nomination. Jim Bevill noted that the Ralph Ross presented, the “Texas Numismatic Association's Club Salute Award” to the club. Jim Bevill presented the official American Numismatic Association election ballot. The club voted on all positions, including Bob Campbell and Patricia Jagger, two nominations being known along with many others at our club.
- May 1999. Installation dinner at Frankie Mandola's (5333 Kirby).
- April 1999. Jim Klodosky discussed that the club was noted in the April issue of the American Numismatic Association's “Numismatist.” The note was about the “Bayou City Coin Show. Jim Bevill handed out a volunteer list for the “Bayou City Coin Show.” Jim then noted that we have advertisements for radio, featuring the current presidents of the area clubs. Jim Bevill reconfirmed that Jerry Clemons and Tim Conway will assist the scout programs. Brian Holland was mediator for the club election. Jim Bevill confirmed the location of the installation dinner. Ralph Ross reminded the club to create an exhibit for the Texas Numismatic Association Coin Show.
- March 1999. Michael Wolford's grandmother, on his mom's side, had died in Pittsburgh. Jim Bevill and the club expressed their sympathy. Jim Bevill stated that the new Delaware quarters are finally in circulation around the Houston area. Jim Bevill asked members to help deliver flyers about the Bayou City Coin Show to area coin shops. Jim Bevill asked members to volunteer or give a program during the Bayou City Coin Show. Jim Klodosky noted Stan Garczynski was in the March issue of the Numismatist. Jim Bevill reminded about the club elections.
- February 1999. May 3, will be Frank Holt from the University Of Houston, discussing ancient coins. Ron Miller and Ed Stephens noted a “Numismatic News” article, problems with quarter's weight, having to insert the Delaware quarter a few times before being accepted in a vending machine. Ron Miller noted that Michael Wolford is doing an excellent job on the newsletter, lot of information and still readable. Jim Bevill asked the club to vote on nominating Bob Campbell as American Numismatic Association president. Tim Conway heard on the radio, a reminder of the Bellaire meeting, with visitors getting a free coin for attending. Jim Bevill stated the new lens for viewing “dollar” size and larger coins will be here soon. Jim Bevill noted that the “Bayou City Coin Show,” will have a merit badge clinic for the scouts. Tim Conway brought a new Delaware quarter with a die crack. Jim Bevill reminded about the club elections. Jerry Clemons stated that Dick Worthington had died.

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

- January 1999. Jim Bevill and Jim Klodosky noted that the club didn't make a large profit, because the club bought a microscope viewer. Jim Bevill reminded about membership fees are due, Jim then stated the new powerful lens for the microscope viewer would arrive after the January 18 meeting. Ed Stephens noted that today, January 4, was the first day to distribute the new "Euro" coinage. Jim Bevill and club members discussed the table fee increase, since the club spent most the Coin Show revenue to buy the microscope viewer. Jim Bevill and Ron Miller reminded about the "Money Show." Jim Bevill and Ed Stephens noted that the "Florida United Numismatists Show" displayed the new Delaware commemorative quarters. Dale Friend and Michael Wolford showed the new Delaware commemorative quarters. The coins were being passed around, since the microscope viewer, didn't get to the meeting on time. Jim Bevill announced a new "preferred association" discount from thrifty car rental. Jeff Todd gave a "Florida United Numismatists Show" report. Jim Bevill and Jerry Clemons discussed nominating bob Campbell as president of the American Numismatic Association.
- December 1998. Before the meeting, one of the librarians had set up "our meeting area" for a children's program. We offered to move. She decided to move to another area. We helped her to move. She thanks us for our help. Jim Bevill stated that the Christmas Dinner was under budget. Jim Bevill and Bill Hooven planned to confirm the budget's income statements. Jim Bevill, Ralph Ross and Jeff Todd discussed that the Clements Coin Club asked for financial aid to "Florida United Numismatists show," but must volunteer to work at Bellaire Coin Show. The club donated $300 for this Florida trip. Seth Kravitz donated a "1999 Florida United Numismatists Catalog" to the club. Andy Chang won the special drawing, Seth Kravitz's "1999 Florida United Numismatists Catalog."
- November 1998. Bill Hooven restarted another Christmas dinner reservation list. Jerry Clemons reminded that Tuesday is Election Day. Tom Lucker stated the David Bowers newsletter had another article about our Bellaire Coin Club. Bill Hooven discussed the club needs more members involved with the club. Michael Wolford noted that he has the reminder card labels for the Pasadena Coin Show. A club member reminded John Evans was ill. A club member stated we received a written request from Clements Coin Club, for financial aid.
- October 1998. Jim Bevill noted that Ralph Ross being pictured in the American Numismatic Association's October 1998 issue of the "Numismatist." Jim Bevill and Ed Smith showed the club the official reprinted 20-dollar currency. Jim Bevill started a Christmas dinner reservation list. Jim Bevill stated that a few years ago today's date was "Black Monday," the stock market went down 22% in one trading period. Jim Bevill presented a vote to confirm giving John Evans $200 for prizes for the Christmas dinner. Ed Arrich stated his wife Linda Owens has had surgery. Linda Owens is doing well and plans to be back the beginning of next year.
- September 1998. Jim Bevill displayed our new "video zoom microscope." Jim Bevill stated a "larger magnification" lens is on order. John Evans gave details of the Christmas Dinner. Jim Bevill showed a "Coin World" ad about the 1804 Trade Dollar at the "American Numismatic Association show" in Portland. Jim Bevill and Louis Whitaker confirmed the dates of the 1999 Bellaire Coin Show. Michael Cooper showed classic plaques that he earned from the club.

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

- August 1998. Jim Bevill gave special thanks to John Evans, Tom Lucker, and Louis Whitaker for all of their work at the Coin Show. Louis Whitaker noted the limited number of club members helping to “tear down” the show. Jim Bevill, John Evans and Ed Stephens started discussing the Christmas Dinner. Jim Bevill read a letter from David Bowers. David Bowers stated his sympathy to Clark Samuelson and included more book donations to the club. Brian Holland and Jim Klodosky thanked Jim Bevill for all of his work at the Coin Show. The club received a “thank you” card from a school that had students visiting the Coin Show. Jonathan Moré and Steve Rademacher created their own “thank you” card to the club. Jim Bevill and other club members discussed the club’s budget to buy a special microscope viewer. Connecting this viewer to a television or video recorder can show a close up on any item under the lens. The total cost of the viewer is about $800. Jim Bevill and Ed Stephens announced that club has a new trunk for any club materials.
- July 1998. Jim Bevill stated that mister Halperin donated the book called “Grade United States Coins” and Jeff Todd donated “red books” to the club. Ed Stephens stated there will be a special drawing for the volunteers, after the show on Sunday. Jim Bevill announced that Tom Lucker has volunteered to the auctioneer for the children’s auction. Jim Bevill announced that the coin shop in Pittsburgh had captured some of the criminals stealing from this shop.
- June 1998. Jim Bevill stated the winners of the “Texas currency notes” raffle from the “Texas Numismatic Association show.” Ron Miller noted that the stock market was up, the day of the meeting. Bill Hooven suggested that the “Bellaire Coin Show” to be dedicated the show to Clark Samuelson. Michael Wolford suggested the show be dedicated to James McCluskey, Michael was not sure if McCluskey was still a member of the Bellaire Coin Club. After the Michael’s suggestion, Jim Bevill stated the club will send a card to James McCluskey’s family. Jerry Clemons noted the in the “Numismatic News classifieds” had information about “reliable coins” company. Jim Bevill welcomed members from the “Clements Coin club,” happened to be able to attend our meeting. Ed Smith noted the start of the circulation of the “reprinted $20’s.” Another club member also noted that the “reprinted $100’s” being scheduled to have another design change. Jerry Clemons brought “United States Silver Dollar Encyclopedia” dedicated from “United States Coins.” Jim Bevill announced that it is time to get ready for the “Bellaire Coin Show.” John Evans asked about the “snack bar.” Brian Holland asked about “red books” to the children’s auction. Jim Bevill read a story about “ancient coins.”
- May 1998. Jim Bevill stated, “Each Bellaire meeting, it seems that the stock market has a new record.” Jim Bevill welcomed Norman Dickinson to the meeting. Dale Friend showed the club a “1895 Philadelphia Cent Proof.” Jerry Clemons noted that Jim McCluskey had died. Jim Bevill stated that the Bellaire Coin Club will have two special drawings. Jim Bevill reminded about the “Bellaire Coin Club and auction.” Tom Lucker suggested using the American Numismatic Association films for programs. Jim Bevill stated the “currency notes” raffle is during the “Texas Numismatic Association show.”

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

- April 1998. Jim Bevill reminded the members about the “Installation Dinner.” Tom Lucker had found a note about Clarke Samuelson. Brian Holland conducted the officer elections. Steve Rademacher brought a 1895 New Orleans Morgan Dollar. Louis Whitaker had a customer story that happened during the Bayou City Coin Show. Jim Bevill stated that the club will schedule a raffle special Numismatic items during the Texas Numismatic Association show.
- March 1998. Jim Bevill and Brian Holland confirmed the nominations for election of officers. The dinner was at the Warwick hotel. Jim Bevill confirmed a $25 donation to promote “National Coin Week.” Jim Bevill stated that Mark Grabowski’s father died. Michael Doyle brought a $50 gold coin to this meeting. Dale Friend brought a 1887 San Francisco Seated Liberty Quarter, Barber Half, and 1917 Philadelphia Liberty Standing Quarter. Tim Conway brought a Robert Kennedy Memorial Commemorative Set to the meeting.
- February 1998. Jim Bevill and Rodney Puckett stated that Clark Samuelson was killed, February 9, in a car accident, in Long Beach. Jim Bevill stated that a motion was made to give $250 to the trust fund for Clark Samuelson.
- January 1998. Jim Bevill and Bill Hooven noted that the Gallery Mint Museum being evolved in the possible design of new dollar coin. Rodney Puckett stated that Norman Dickinson was out of hospital. Ron Miller suggested that the local area clubs attempted to get the American Numismatic Association to have a show in the Houston area.
- December 1997. Christmas dinner with the Greater Houston Coin Club. One of our newest member Charles Worthen was ill. A letter from Norman Dickinson. Norman was at m d Anderson having a bone marrow transplant. Bill Hooven also stated he is stopping the monthly one-day shows. The Bayou City Coin Show, as a two-day show. Clark Samuelson showed a Numismatic News year in review article about Ralph Ross.
- November 1997. The American Numismatic Association’s Numismatist had a Joe Wells obituary. Greater Houston Coin Club is providing $200 for Christmas prizes. Jim Bevill created a special young Numismatist drawing. The prize for the drawing was an extra donation. The winner was Kevin Lembcke. Clayton Jennings stated Ervin Sitte is ill.
- October 1997. Counterfeit currency, by Lighton Greenlee of the United States Secret Service. Ron Miller, he arranged for Mister Greenlee, to give a program in the Houston area. Numismatic News article about the Bellaire Coin Show Children’s Auction. Magazine article about the Long Beach Show. Article described a stranger, fitting the description of our president. Tom Lucker in Coin World. Texas Numismatic Association News had a notice about Joe Wells.
- September 1997. Jim Klodosky read a letter from Bill Archer. Claire Evans was ill, wife of our special event locator, John Evans. An Coin World article from Stan Garczynski, about Polish Coins. Combining the Bellaire and Greater Houston Coin Club for a Christmas dinner. Francis Ripley had a stroke, a dealer that attends all the local area Coin Shows.

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

- August 1997. Bellaire Coin Show. A draft of the 1997 Bellaire Coin Show expenses. The eulogy that Randy Scofield stated during Joe Wells's funeral. Brian Holland would volunteer auction treasurer. How the club would remember of Joe Wells. Details from the 1997 Bellaire Coin Show report. Clark Samuelson donated a book to the Bellaire library. Clark Samuelson donated a bank note to the next Bellaire Coin Show Children's Auction. National Coin Week certificate from the American Numismatic Association. Displayed a proclamation from the city of Bellaire. Officially voted Jim Klodosky as treasurer. Confirmed a donation of $100 to Boys Scout Troop 266. Discussed Clark Samelson's bank note to use it as an auction lot or as a raffle. The Aldine School District plans to create a Young Numismatic Coin Club.
- July 1997. Ed Stephens provided a B-B-Q dinner during the set up of the Bellaire Coin Show. Joe Wells is so ill that Joe will not be able to attend any more club meetings. The Bellaire Parks and Recreation listed the show in their calendar. The Greater Houston Coin Club is trying a new meeting location.
- June 1997. Joe Wells was back in the hospital, but is doing better. The Texas Numismatic Association show needed volunteers. A letter from Wilson Elementary, thanking the club for the Money Story video. Received labels and placed on Texas Numismatic Association show reminders. Opinions about the Texas Numismatic Association show admission fee. Advertisement about the Bellaire Coin Show 97 in the Houston Chronicle. The weekend news programs advertised the Texas Numismatic Association show. Noted that the Texas Numismatic Association now on the Internet. Lionel Levy has had a stroke, and not being able to attend the meetings.
- May 1997. A letter from the Houston Independent School District about the videos. The Clements Coin Club article appearing in Numismatist. All tables for the Bellaire Coin Show were sold out. Robert Bevill finished the meeting with another song about the Bill Of Rights. Installation banquet. Jim Bevill announced the Joe Wells was in the hospital. Dale Friend installed the officers for the 1997-1998 year. Jim Bevill is being installed as president. Bill Hooven being installed as vice president. Ed Stephens being installed as secretary. Joe Wells being installed as treasurer.
- April 1997. Jim Bevill welcomed Joe Wells back to the club the Louis Eliasberg auction in New York. Brian Holland was mediator for the club elections. Jim Bevill discussed that A J Lanier had died on April 15. A proclamation about National Coin Week in Bellaire. Money story videos to local schools in the area. Article in Houston Chronicle, over the weekend. Handed out rest of the National Coin Week metals, with wooden nickels.
- March 1997. Greater Houston Coin Club's Money Show with the Gallery Mint Museum. The new Bellaire T-shirts are here. Received a copy of the Louis Eliasberg auction. Article in Numismatic News about our new Bellaire Coin Club logo. Bellaire Coin Club article in Coin World about National Coin Week. Article on the Coin Universe World Wide Web site. Article in the Houston Chronicle about the new dollar coin. The March issue of George, with a possible design of the dollar coin. John Evans gave a proclamation to the mayor, about National Coin Week. Reminder of the American Numismatic Association's Summer Conference.

Bellaire Coin Club – Summary Of 1995 To 2002

- February 1997. Morley Dimma was being hospitalized. Numismatic News noted that they liked the new Bellaire logo. Clark Samuelson and Frank Holt donation to the Bellaire library. Club members discussed attending the Money Show. Jim Bevill noted the people having articles in area publications. Bellaire Coin Club being scheduled to be in an issue of the Numismatic News. Jim Bevill, Michael Shafer and Joe Wells discussed details of the shirt.
- January 1997. Smithsonian day at the George R Brown. New Bellaire Coin Club logo created. The club had an article in Coin World. The new Bellaire Coin Club T-shirt designed. United States president being inaugurated on a federal holiday.
- December 1996. Bellaire and Greater Houston Coin Clubs combined holiday celebration dinner. Jim Bevill had an article in "Coin World."
- November 1996. Tim Lobstein had the cover article in "Numismatist." Pasadena Coin Show.
- September 1996. Greater Orange Coin Club writes a wonderful article about the Bellaire Coin Show.
- August 1996. Bellaire Coin Show.
- July 1996. Ed Arrich and Linda Gale Owens attends the American Numismatic Association Summer Conference in Colorado Springs. Brian Holland had an article in "Coin World." Michael Wolford updated the format of the Bellaire newsletter.
- June 1996. Bill Hooven creates a new monthly Coin Show.
- May 1996. Bellaire's Installation Dinner, at the Forum. Brian Holland had an article in "Coin World." Texas Numismatic Association schedules next show in Houston.
- April 1996. Jim Bevill had an article in "Numismatist." Bob Jones had article in "Coin World." Ed Stephens had article in "Coin World."
- February 1996. Greater Houston Coin Club's Money Show.
- December 1995. Bellaire, Houston Coin Clubs combined Christmas Dinner.
- November 1995. Tim Lobstein, volunteer librarian of the Houston Coin Club. Pasadena Coin Show.
- September 1995. Houston Coin Club 40th Anniversary. Numismatic shopping shows found by Michael Wolford.
- August 1995. El Campo Coin Show. Bellaire Coin Show.
- July 1995. Bellaire Coin Club letter in "Coin World." Houston Coin Club "Counterfeiting Program" by Mark Hughes, Secret Service.
- April 1995. Proclamation of Houston Coin Club Week. Bill & Chris Johns inducted to Texas Numismatic Association Hall of Fame.
- March 1995. Southeast Texas Coin & Collectibles Spring Show, in Beaumont canceled.
- February 1995. Bellaire, Houston, Pasadena Coin Clubs combined show visitor lists.
- January 1995. Greater Houston Coin Club Money Show.