

COIN GRADING SEMINAR

PRESENTED BY THE TEXAS NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION, INC.

Thursday, May 19, 8:30 AM-5:00 PM

Arlington Convention Center, Room M-1,

the day before the 2016 TNA Coin Show begins (May 20-22)

The class will cover in detail many popularly collected series of U.S. coins concentrating upon (but not restricted to) circulated grades of coins. The class will also briefly go over the proper handling and viewing of coins under proper lighting. Many coins will be studied and evaluated by the students.

CLASS INSTRUCTORS

Carl Stang: an avid collector of coins, past instructor at the ANA's Summer Seminar in Colorado Springs, current president of the Northeast Tarrant Coin Club and a member of the Fort Worth Coin Club.

Richard Wallace: a long time and respected North Texas coin dealer, a member and past president of the Northeast Tarrant Coin Club and a member and past treasurer of the Fort Worth Coin Club.

Hear grading insight from both sides of the bourse table!
After the class, you'll be ready to hit the bourse floor with an arsenal of useful coin grading knowledge!
So bring your loop, have some fun and spend a day looking at coins!

Cost is $50 (includes lunch!)...reserve your place today! The class is limited to the first 30 persons to sign up. A similar class offered in August of last year filled up quick, so reserve your place!
